

VISA TO LEBANON

General information

(1) To enter Lebanon, participants should hold a visa, issued at a Lebanese Embassy/Consulate abroad, or obtain a visa at the border/airport from the Directorate General of Security.

- Participants holding diplomatic or UNLP passports may obtain the visa, free of charge, at the Airport;
- Participants from many Foreign Countries may obtain the visa at the Airport, at a cost of LBP 50,000 for one month;
- Participants from Jordan (with a national number on their passports) and the Gulf Cooperation Council Countries (Saudi-Arabia, Kuwait, United Arab Emirates, Bahrain, Qatar and Oman) may obtain the visa at the Airport, at NO COST for Three months. Participants holding Special Diplomatic passport visa is free of charge;
- Participants from Egypt and Iraq, could either get a visa from a Lebanese embassy/consulate in their country of residence, or obtain a visa at the airport such that they have the following:
 - (a) Two ways non-refundable ticket;
 - (b) Hotel reservation;
 - (c) Holding US$ 2000 cash; and
 - (d) Invitation letter to the meeting.

(2) For countries that do not have a Lebanese Embassy/Consulate, the ESCWA Travel Unit may assist in acquiring a visa to Lebanon. Participants coming from Syria, Sudan, Iraq, Palestine, Yemen and some African Countries and who need the assistance of ESCWA on the visa, should provide the following THREE (3) weeks before the meeting date, ie before Friday 18 May 2015:

- Clear COLORED copy of the passport;
- Palestinian Citizens should also provide an Exit/Entry permission from their country.
- Send the copies to ESCWA-AIGLE@un.org (or submit through the online registration), as attachment in JPEG format, such that the passport copy shows the number and issue and expiry dates, with validity of at least 6 months from the date of the meeting.
