Collaborative website for enhancing capacities to eradicate violence against women
Enhancing capacities to eradicate violence against women through networking of local knowledge communities

This wiki was established in the framework of the interregional United Nations project "Enhancing capacities to eradicate violence against women through networking of local knowledge communities". It is a collaborative space to share information and resources, e.g. statistical data and studies, meeting papers and reports, and any other information on the situation of violence against women in all regions and countries of the world. The aim is to build an international community of exchange and dissemination of knowledge, in order to promote evidence-based policies to eradicate violence against women.
